

This month we get to know Dr Mark Lackie, the Editor of the ASEG publication, Exploration Geophysics and ASEG NSW Branch President. If you would like to nominate someone for the Member Spotlight, please contact communications@aseg.org.au

1. For how long have you been a geophysicist?

Many decades.

2. What do you like most about being a geophysicist.

Solving problems.

3. If you weren't a geophysicist what would you be?

Chef or Professional shooter.

4. What is your best interview tip?

Avoid them.

5. What's one thing that we wouldn't know about you?

I love cooking.

6. Tell us about your best field meal?

Any meal consumed with red wine.

7. Where was your best sunrise location?

Kakadu.

8. What are you reading at the moment?

AFL's injured list.

9. What made you decide to be a geophysicist?

It merges maths and geology and is very interesting.

10. What's one thing you wish someone had told you when you were at university?

Where the best coffee is made...you waste valuable time finding the place.

11. What's your most treasured textbook?

Applied Geophysics by Telford et al.

12. Your funniest or worst field memory?

Having the class blow up a TerraTEM...I still sob.

13. Who is your geophysical idol?

Phil Schmidt...mentor at CSIRO and could always do "it" whatever "it" was.

